

Please continue to wear your face mask at all times while in our surgery

Although face masks are no longer mandatory in indoor public spaces (as of 27/01/22), they are still compulsory in all GP practices. Infection Prevention and Control requirements state that patients must continue to wear a face mask, unless exempt.